

Task:

- Build an application that allows you to add movies to an array with optional additional information.
- Use command line input to navigate the application.
- Define functions in a separate file and import into app.js
- At the end of runtime it must console log the movie added with any optional info.

Stretch Goal - Add multiple movies during runtime and add them to the console.log at the end